Dear ANZACC ATLANTA,

As Atlanta's summer cools down, things are really warming up for our big event next month,

★ The Wool Shed Ball.

Read about the Wool Shed Ball in this newsletter, and follow the links to the ANZACC website for more information. Watch your email and your mail around the end of the month for your invitation to what promises to be another unique Down Under event.

Also in this issue, a chance to meet our ★ Flying Kangaroos. Our sponsor member QANTAS isn't the only Flying Kangaroo we're proud of - this time we'd like you to meet two other Australian successes, from the field of motor racing. Read about this great opportunity to meet with David Brabham and Tom Drewer in Atlanta on September 30.

Sincerely,
Jim Geddes, President

Do you know someone who should see this? Forward to a friend

September 30, 6:30pm to 8:30pm

Meet the Flying Kangaroos

Meet special guests, Aussies David Brabham and Tom Drewer, at the Panoz Auto Facility at Hoschtton (I-85 at exit 126). There is no charge for this event, but your RSVP is requested for catering.

Tour the Panoz performance sports car showroom with owner Danny Panoz, and enjoy drinks and nibbles provided by the Australian Bakery Cafe.

Cars on display include the Brabham edition Panoz Esperante, Patrick Dempsey's Mustang, and Tom Drewer's West IMSA Lites L2 prototype. Full details in these two PDF downloads > info1 : info2

2008 Wool Shed Ball

Next month - October 25 - ANZACC hosts a Down Under Ball with a difference!

Following the outstanding success of ANZACC's Down Under Ball events in recent years, this year's Ball takes a different turn, themed after the popular iconic events - an Australian achelors & Spinsters Ball, and a New Zealand Hunt Ball.

Join us, along with the Australian and New Zealand Ambassadors to the US, in the ANZAC "Wool Shed" and our adjoining "Shearers' Arms" pub for a night under the stars in Buckhead, in Down Under bush style.

We have plenty to tell you about the 2008 Wool Shed Ball in the coming weeks, so..

- ★ circle October 25 on your calendar,
