Grant Thornton

Biography

Gerald Zukauckas

Director - International Expatriate Services

Jerry joined the Grant Thornton Atlanta office in September 2006 as a Director in the International Expatriate Services (IES) national team. His focus is serving the international assignment market through offering his 30 + years of tax, finance and management experience to organizations that assign personnel abroad or bring them to the United States.

Jerry has an extensive range of tax, human resource and business consulting experience serving international assignment programs. His technical skills include international tax, compensation, international human resource policy, process development and tax services for high net worth individuals with foreign interests. He has lead and built several teams, both in the United Kingdom and the United States to serve companies with small to very large (in excess of 500 assignees) international assignment populations.

He was a partner or director with several major (“Big 4”) accounting firms both in the United States and the United Kingdom, where he lived and worked for over 17 years. He testified before the Congressional House Ways and Means Committee on issues relating to Americans abroad.

Jerry is a CPA, a board member of the World Trade Center in Atlanta and a very active member of his church community. He participates in various programs of the Employee Relocation Council and the Society of Human Resource Management. He is a frequent public speaker and author on international assignment topics.

He received his Bachelor’s degree, with honors, from the Pennsylvania State University. Jerry lives in the Buckhead section of Atlanta with his wife Sharon.
